CAMP HILL, Pa., Oct. 20, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Clean Earth, a division of Harsco Corporation and a leading provider in environmental and regulated waste management services, has been named to the 2021 Engineering News-Record (ENR) annual Top 600 Specialty Contractors list for the 11th consecutive year.

The prestigious ENR list ranks specialty contractors in the U.S. by year-end construction specific revenue generated in 2020. Clean Earth placed 41st overall on ENR's annual Top 600 Specialty Contractors list for 2021, generating more than $619 million in revenue in 2020, a majority coming from markets such as hazardous waste, industrial/petroleum and transportation.

"It is a tremendous accomplishment for our team to appear once again on this key industry ranking," said Clean Earth President David Stanton. "This honor reinforces our commitment to providing innovative environmental services to our customers, who rely on us to advance their sustainability goals by safely treating, recycling and repurposing hazardous and non-hazardous waste."
